The old Cheadle brick building in Albany fell with a sudden crash about 6 o clock on Wednesday evening creating general consternation. The excavations for a basement for a new brick building had weakened the foundation of the one story brick adjoining so that the north wall fell in fetting down the roof and causing a grand smash up. It was occupied by a stock of gene all merchandise, owned by Phil Cohen and his loss is considerable.

A correspondent from Gardiner writes as follows concerning the late fire at that place On Monday afternoon about 4 o clock a fire broke out in a house that was eccepted by a Mr Carte near the lover mill at this place.
